VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1889.

NO. 49.

A Note of Warning.

The Courier-Journal, after a careful survey of the field, says there are serious grounds of apprehension of the result of the election for treasurer, and if the democratic party is to be saved from a humiliating defeat, it must be done by securing a full democratic vote.

Let all other considerations but that of democratic success be at once put aside. The one issue now is that of party ascendancy. The republicans are bending every energy and using every means at their disposal to compass the defeat of Capt. Sharp, a gentleman of high character and unquestioned integrity. Patronage, promises and money are being poured out lavishly, and a still hunt is being made with confident expectation of success.

Democrats owe it to themselves, to their party, and to our faithful governor, to see that the election of Mr. Sharp is put beyond question. The dishonesty of Mr. Tate is not to be denied. The republicans are making all they can of the betrayal of his trust by an officer so honored by the democratic party.

The exposure of Mr. Tate, the investigation of his office, and the reorganization of the department have been the work of democratic officers. Throughout the whole affair Governor Buckner conducted himself in a manner to command the confidence of the people, to maintain the public credit, and to place our finances in such a condition that, notwithstanding the defalcation, the name of the State would be untarnished, and the interest of the tax-payers would be protected.

For more than 20 years the democratic party has been in charge of the State affairs of Kentucky. During that period there has been but one man who has proven himself unworthy of the confidence reposed in him. During these 20 years our public affairs has been conducted with singular honesty, intelligence, economy and foresight. At every point the welfare of the tax-payers has been considered; expenditures have been limited to the strict needs of the Government; the school system has been vastly improved; the assessments have been equalized and perfected; the State penitentiary has been reorganized and put on a plane with the best institutions in the country, and, with the exception of the Treasury there has been no hint of dishonesty or shadow of mismanagement.

This record is one that appeals to every intelligent man. The party so conducting the affairs of the State is entitled to a vote of confidence and approval. Take any other State in the Union, whose affairs have been in the hands of the republican party and mark the contrast. The State of Kentucky is practically out of debt; its taxes for State purposes, excluding the school tax, have been as low during the past 20 years as those of any State in the Union, while the school tax is as large as that for all other purposes. Republican officeholders have squandered the funds of the people, have increased the rate of taxation, have created enormous debts, and by special legislation have built up, at the expense of the people, vast fortunes in the hands of a few individuals. This is the story from South Carolina to Nebraska. In the reconstructed States alone the republicans created in five years a debt of $291,627,015, equal to one-fourth of the National debt to-day. Let the contrast warn the democrats of Kentucky against permitting the republican party to gain a foothold in any department of this State.

The democrats have made the financial condition of the State the envy of all sections.

The republicans have plundered every Southern State which they have controlled.

Under republican guidance a debt of $300,000,000 was fastened on the reconstructed States.

In charge of the Freedmen's Savings Bank distinguished republicans robbed the poor black man of $3,000,000 and none of the thieves were ever made to do justice.

Here in Kentucky take the record of the office of United States Marshal, and compare the past four years of democratic administration with the previous 20 years of republican scandals and inefficiency.

Compare the conduct of the pension agency by republicans with the record made by democrats.

Go to the legislature and consult the journals and you find that every bill of value to the State, every measure resulting in improving our finances, elevating our schools and equalizing taxation is the work of some democrat.

The republican minority has done nothing, suggested nothing, supported nothing in the interest of the people.

Is it possible that the people of Kentucky, refusing to trust the affairs of the State to the republican party when guided by Speed, Harlan and Bristow, will to-day turn from the democratic party, which has labored so faithfully and so successfully for the welfare of the public, and call to its assistance the party of Harrison and Tanner, led in Kentucky by the wonderful triumvirate,

Willson, Colson and Bradley? The mere suggestion is humiliating. These men and the party at their back are at war with every principle of good government. They praise all that is abhorrent to our people. They in their party alliances represent the greed, the avarice, the corruption and the debauchery of modern politics. Their associates are Dudley, Foraker and Tanner. Their organ at Cincinnati has been breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the people of Kentucky and our brethren of the South. We owe it to ourselves to our State, to every name sacred to us to defeat the machinations of these men and to redeem the financial credit of the State from the distrust involved in the very mention of Colson's name for treasurer, by an overwhelming majority for Sharp.

Democrats you have been warned in time; do your duty.

CRAB ORCHARD

—Very heavy rain storm Friday night.—R. H. Brougham's baby is very low with brain trouble from teething.

—While bicycling is coming to the front as an amusement the C. O. boys are not backward in this line, but don't their tights and stockings and skinning along the thoroughfares look like, as a little fellow who had not seen such a thing before said, "on roller skates."

—Johnnie Buchanan is home from Louisville on visit. We suppose he has been playing the "devil" in the Times office and will soon blossom into a first-class editor from this "roll." R. S. Knowles, of Smith's Grove, Ky., was here Friday looking up lumber for the L. & N. R. R. Mr. Livingston is at his father-in-law's, Dr. Doores, teaching that baby more Dutch. Handsome Joe Brooks is here resting the hot days away, to the delight of the young ladies.

—The many friends of Mrs. A. A. McKinney in this place express their deepest sympathies with Mr. McKinney in his sad bereavement. Her death will leave a vacancy felt everywhere, but while she leaves sad hearts here she fills a higher and holier place beyond the veil, like once when a sailor was upon the topmost mast of a ship, when the storm began to blow, the captain hollered, "Look aloft!" so when the storms of life surround us we should not look down into the sad vacances left, but look up and above and realize a beautiful Providence in all the end of life; suffering ceased and loved ones transplanted to a more exceedingly fair and happy home forever.

—The free schools in the country are under full blast now and some of the houses are almost blast furnaces this hot weather. Not enough attention is paid to the ventilation for summer and warmth for winter. Most of school houses are bake-ovens in summer and freeze-out in winter. Low ceilings and open floors generally mark them and again the object of plenty light is forgotten. Little narrow windows giving a scarcity of light on dark days and a scarcity of air passage on hot days; very few have any awnings on the sunny side to protect the children from the hot rays of the sun. All school houses should be built with tight floors, sides and ceiling high, with tall windows and plenty of them, arranged so as to properly ventilate the room for both summer and winter.

—The ball at Crab Orchard Springs on Friday night was an elegant affair, although the heavy rain prevented many from adjoining towns from attending.

The crowd was not large, but sufficient to make the occasion a most enjoyable one, and the stars were making faces at the little wee hours of the morn before the violin unstrung her bow and the harp hung silent on the wall. These occasions are delightful and the management of the Springs know how to make them so, and although the unprecedent rainy season has been a great drawback to the Springs, they do everything to make it pleasant to those who are there. More visitors are at both Crab Orchard Springs and Dripping than would be expected under the circumstances of such wet weather. Dripping Springs has a hop every night except Sunday, and a dancing master to teach those who don't know how and introduce all new dances. D. G. Slaughter's song of his "Little Wild Rose," but now he has a "Lily." Dan, can't you give us something "awful sweet" about the "Lily of the Dripping Springs Valley?"

—Must Have Worms.—Judge Boyd, of the mountain circuit, seems to be a peevish, fretful kind of a porcupine, whose quills turn the wrong way on the slightest provocation. A short time since he had the grand jury of Laurel county indict the editor of the Stanford JOURNAL for some incongruous remarks he published regarding this Jeffries in a diminutive mold. This was not unexpected, as the JOURNAL is a democratic newspaper. But now comes this sensitive judge and hops on a republican paper, the Mountain Echo.—Richmond Register. Look out, Bro. Green, the first thing you know you and we will be doing time in the London jail—in a horn.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Ever since Miss Rose Richards taught music in an Institute at Jackson, Breathitt county, a handsome young lawyer, John E. Patrick, Esq., by name, has been making periodical visits here to see her. At first they were thought to be nothing more than friendly visits, but those who take cognizance of such matters finally saw that there was something up, tho' both concealed their real designs so well that it was actually reported that Miss Rose and a young man of Stanford were fixing to marry. People were therefore very much surprised last Thursday night to learn that she and Mr. Patrick, who was on a visit to her, had quietly left town in a buggy, and proceeding at once to Lancaster, had been made husband and wife. The ceremony occurred at Mr. W. B. Mason's, a cousin of the bride, and was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Frank. They did not return to Stanford, but took the train next morning for their home. The secrecy attending the affair was occasioned by no objection of Capt and Mrs. Richards to Mr. Patrick, for he is a most excellent gentleman and worthy of the good wife Miss Rose will make him. While all of us regret very much to have Miss Rose leave us, for she is a most lovable and popular girl, her friends are pleased to know she has chosen so wisely and become the bride of one so worthy of her. Mr. Patrick is a rising young barrister, of excellent standing, and is a thorough Christian gentleman. Everybody who knows her is aware of Miss Rose's superior qualities and is confident that she will make him a loving and true helpmeet. Our heartiest congratulations are extended, along with the hope that their days may be long upon the earth and always as happy as their honeymoon.

—In politics as in love the best plan is to put no confidence in man or woman either. Mr. Brice, of California, realized this. He confided his love for a certain beauty to a good friend and asked him to be his best man, which he promised, but before the day set for the marriage he ran off and married the girl himself. Brice pursued them and after fatally wounding his perfidious friend committed suicide.

—Her Royal Highness, the Princess Louise Victoria Alexander Dagmar, eldest daughter of the Prince of Wales, was married at noon Saturday to Alexander William George, Earl of Fife, Knight of the Thistle, in the private chapel of the Buckingham Palace.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JULY 30, 1889

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

State Treasurer,
STEPHEN G. SHARPE.

FOR STATE SENATOR,
R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, OF BOYLE.

For Representative, Lincoln County,
RICHARD C. WARREN.

A DEMOCRAT, in whom there is no guile, a temperance man by theory and practice and a high-toned christian gentleman, incapable of a dishonorable thought or action, Hon. R. C. Warren is indeed a model candidate. Nothing can be truthfully said against him of a discreditable character and no flaw could be detected with a microscope on his political record. He has borne himself with great credit during the canvass and has more than ever endeared himself to the hearts of true democrats. The principles of the party, including its declarations of the inalienable right of local self-government have been intelligently and eloquently discussed by him and he has convinced every one who honestly believes in that right and the right of the majority to rule, of the justness and fairness of an amendment to the prohibitory law, restoring the right which that enactment takes from them. He does not propose another election on the question, but simply places the matter in a shape so that the people can act as they see proper in the premises. Only this and nothing more. If the people wish to vote thereafter on the question, they can do so by complying with the provisions of the law regarding called election when the majority want to continue the law they will do so and whatever their decision Mr. Warren will cheerfully acquiesce. He is the candidate of no clique or ring, but of the straight-cut democracy, and as such he claims your votes. Honor Lincoln county and yourselves by sending him to the legislature and putting a quietus on political persons, who for the sake of an office would sell out their holy calling and bring the church itself into contempt.

In the State platform adopted in convention last week, the Ohio prohibitionists declare that "No citizen shall be deprived of the right of suffrage on account of sex." Woman suffrage is one of the distinctive features of the so-called prohibition party, and the man who does not subscribe to it and all of its tenets, does not deserve even membership in the party, much less official preferment. Because it is unpopular here and everywhere that women do not desire to unsex themselves, Bro. Montgomery professes to be against woman suffrage, but it is only a dodge, such as is unworthy of the most arrant demagogue. Democrats, be not deceived by the old and threadbare recitations about the "drunkard's grave and the drunkard's hell," which the prohibitionists are using to cover their real designs, but stick to the old ship, which has weathered many a storm and withstood hundreds of just such attempts to break it up as the I am Holier than Thou crowd is now endeavoring to make.

The republican bosses are beseeching the colored people to refrain from voting in the legislative race and the prohibitionists are begging the democrats who are not for them to stay at home, but we do not think either prayer will be heeded. Sensible democrats are not caught by the alleged temperance issue the prohibitionists have tried to inject into this canvass, but will come to the polls, vote early and see that their neighbors do likewise. There is a hen on the senatorial race and from all that we can gather Judge Breckinridge will have republican opposition, not the manly, open kind, but that most cowardly of all quest of game, the still hunt. But no matter whether he has or not, it is the duty of every democrat to go to the polls and record his vote for our nominees. Forewarned is forearmed, so take the side of safety and run no risks.

The pension office investigation has borne good fruit already. An application for pension has actually been refused. A soldier named Taffa was killed by a comrade in a drunken row and his widow asked for a pension. According to former rulings she ought to have had it, but while the office is on its ps and qs it must make an appearance of virtue.

It is generally expected that the president will appoint Attorney General Miller as Associate justice on the Supreme Bench. He was his law partner and Harrison is noted for trying to keep the best things in the family, as it were. Miller has no fitness whatever for the high position, but that doesn't count under republican rules.

EDITOR RICHARDSON, of the Glasgow Times, warns the fellow who threatened to pull his auricular that the man that tackles his ear will have his hands full. We knew that Bro. Jim had a pretty good-sized ear, but had no idea it was as large as he seems to think. But he ought to know, so we will not dogmatize.

THE Courier-Journal has a long letter from Pineville to show that the Colson family have gotten away with half a dozen or more people, principally by assassination, and that one of the brothers, who is school commissioner of Bell is a meaner defaulter than Tate, though on a much smaller scale. There is nothing particularly bad in the record of David Colson, the candidate for State Treasurer, except that he is a bull-dozer and frequently wants to take the law in his own hands, and while he should not be held accountable for his brothers' acts and while we are not especially struck on this method of electeering against a man, it must be admitted that Mr. Colson has drawn it out himself by his rantings about Tate and assertions that no democrat is to be trusted because that scoundrel defainted. On the same character of argument the matter comes pretty close to Mr. Colson as it is his brothers and not the republican party generally which are accused of assassination and robbery. If the mare trots the colt is pretty apt to and it is rare that you find one angel among six brothers whose records as given show that they are fiends incarnate. We know nothing about Mr. Colson ourselves except that he is apparently quite a clever man, but we do know the history of Judge Stephen G. Sharpe and know that no stain has ever rested on his character or that of any member of his family. You will run no risk by voting for him, for he is a tried and true man, worthy of the confidence Gov. Buckner and the party have placed in him. See therefore that you help to swell his majority to 50,000.

THERE are occasions when the slow machinery of the law is inadequate for the proper example to be made of criminals, and when a rape has been committed one of them. About 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon Jim Kelly, a burly negro brute of 200 pounds, brutally assaulted Mrs. Peter Crow, the delicate wife of the section boss of Paris, and accomplished his purpose. The alarm was given and the beast was soon lodged in jail. That night at 2 o'clock 100 determined citizens went to the jail and under the pretext that they wanted to put a prisoner in, threw the jailer off his guard and succeeded in getting their man. Next morning his carcass, suspended from a bridge near town, told the rest of the story and furnished an example of what all ravishers of women may expect. The lynching was conducted in a most quiet and orderly manner, showing that the best citizens and not hoodlums, who thirst for human blood, had performed the righteous work.

WHEN the democrats took charge of the State government in 1867, she was only paying 72 cents per capita for the education of her white children alone. Now both races are provided for and the per capita for this year is $2.15, just three times what it was in 1867. Doesn't this look very much like the republicans are falsifying when they assert that the democratic party has failed to provide for popular education in Kentucky?

THE counting of the cash and securities in the U. S. treasury shows that there are $700,000,000. A shortage of $8 was found in the new silver vault, where $5,600,000 silver dollars are stored, and a deficit of $15 in the old silver vault, containing $45,000,000. Both shortages were immediately made good. It is believed that this money was lost during the recent flooding of the vault.

THE constitution being prepared for Washington Territory's assumption of Statehood, provides that no governor shall be eligible to the U. S. Senate during the term for which he was elected. It would be a good thing for the people if all State constitutions provided the same thing. Governors would then attend to their business and not use their office for electioneering purposes.

COLSON spoke three hours at Springfield in order to prevent a democrat from answering him, but it didn't work. The young man finally ran down after telling all he knew a half dozen times and more than he knew fully a dozen. The crowd quietly waited and were handsomely rewarded by seeing the mountain bantam completely picked alive.

THE prohibitionists of Ohio have nominated a preacher for governor, with the suggestive name of Helwig. If he gives up his holy office for political preferment he and his gang will soon be lifting up their voices and crying: "We have sinned against God and man and down to Helwig must go."

THE Paducah Standard excellently says: "Gen. Apathy," who has been commanding the democratic forces in Kentucky, has retired and Gen. Enthusiasm will lead them to victory on the 1st Monday in August." The Purchase is up in arms and can be relied on to do its duty as usual.

THE Shelbyville Sentinel says that Harry McCarty, of the Jessamine Journal, will be candidate for doorkeeper of the next Kentucky House of Representatives. He is a capital fellow and if the press boys elect him they would do so by unanimous vote.

"We admit that we do not have any too much love for Mr. Colson." This is from the republican London Echo, but an honest confession is always good for the soul and Bro. Dyche is making a reputation of late for frankness.

It is said that one Col. McMurtry, of Garrard, is the republican candidate for State Senator. Does anybody know him? We do not, but you can wager your bottom dollar that every son-of-a-gun of a republican will vote for him, if he is a candidate. Our candidate, Judge Breckinridge, is thoroughly qualified and a good all-around man for the position. It would, therefore, be a public calamity to leave him at home and send some unknown and unqualified individual to represent us in the Senate. Democrats, do not permit such a thing to approach even a possibility, but go the polls and vote and work for our distinguished nominee.

It is said that figures won't lie, but any well-posted man will say after hearing a republican tell about the State's financial condition, that they do, or the fellow who uses them is himself an arrant liar. Be sure it's the fellow, not the "figgers," dear reader.

Prof. J. W. Howell, of Rutledge, Tenn., who was bitten by a black-and-tan terrier 13 years ago, is dying of hydrocephalus.

The Rhode Island legislature has fixed $400 and $500 for whisky license, according to size of town, and druggist's license at $25.

Lewis Bros. & Co., a heavy New York dry goods house, with branches in Philadelphia and other cities, failed for about $4,000,000.

Wesley Elkins, 11 years old, has been arrested at Edgewood, Mich., charged with murdering his mother and father, on the night of July 17.

Wm. J. Rist, ganger, E. Schneider, storekeeper, Charles Van Arsdell, storekeeper-ganger, Isaac C. Catron, ganger, have been appointed in this district.

Gov. Jackson, of Maryland, has granted the necessary papers and a warrant has been issued for Kilrain's arrest on the charge of prize fighting in Mississippi.

In Cincinnati 1,200 saloonists resolve to defy the law and keep open houses on Sunday, but the arrest of 150 of them caused the balance to close up double quick.

An English syndicate has purchased five of the six breweries in Patterson, N. J., for an aggregate of $2,380,000, the owners to retain a one-third interest in the concern.

A dispatch from London says Sullivan having refused Jem Smith's challenge, Smith claims the championship belt. Smith is ready to fight anybody for the belt and $1,000 a side.

Near Marion, Ind., a helpless widow, Mrs. Azeneth Street, and her daughter were taken by "regulators," stripped to the waist and brutally whipped. The accusation against them was gossiping.

Edward James, the false Christ, of Liberty county, Ga., has been arrested on the charge of lunacy and will be sent to the asylum. Twenty-nine of his most desperate followers were taken with him.

The Mason & Foard Company, lessees of the penitentiary, have purchased 300 acres of ground on South Elkhorn, near Frankfort, and will cultivate it exclusively for producing supplies for convicts.

James Gorden, a well-known farmer of Richie county, W. Va., was arrested a day or two since charged with incest with his daughter, a girl 19 years old. Gorden was held in $1,000 bail to answer the indictment.

The $50,000 damage suit brought by a preacher named Howard against three newspapers at Jackson, Tenn., and the Baptist church at that place, resulted after a noted trial in a verdict of one cent and costs for the plaintiff.

At Bayville, La., Friday, Chas. Sellers was hung, the officer in charge conducting the condemned to the scaffold and doing the entire job alone and without ceremony. Tom Bolling was hung at Baton Rouge the same day.

Rival factions of Mercer county school trustees have been at war for several weeks and Saturday the school house over which they were wrangling suddenly burned down. There is talk of the arrest of prominent people to answer for arson.

Cincinnati reports a horrible murder. Dr. Jones' body was found in a sewer man-hole with wounds that showed that he was murdered. His negro coachman confessed on being charged with the crime that he had knocked the doctor on the head in his own yard Thursday afternoon, had dragged the body into the stable, where he left it until night, when he put it in a bag, tied up with a strap, and carried it through the streets until he reached the man-hole. The most horrible part of the recital is the fact that the doctor was still alive when thrown into the sewer.

MR. W. L. DAWSON has returned from a business trip to Hackberry, Arizona.

Mrs. MATTIE LOGAN, of Mitchellsburg, has been visiting Mrs. J. A. Carpenter.

MISSSES LIZZIE AND IDA TWIDWELL, of Hustonville, were in this city Saturday.

Mr. WM. G. POLE, of Geoghegan's hat house, Louisville, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. S. J. EMARY, who has been suffering very much from sciatica, is improving.

Mrs. JAMES NUNNELLEY, of Louisville, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. P. P. Nunnelley.

Mrs. ANNIE SEARGENT, of Stanford, is visiting relatives near here.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Mrs. S. E. LACKEY and children, of Gallatin, Tenn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lackey.

MR. AND MRS. G. C. KELLER, JR., are spending the week in Harrisburg, where the fair is in progress.

MISS NANNIE MARRS, Monte Harris and Geo. Wearen went to Harrodsburg yesterday to attend the fair.

Mrs. MAGGIE TUCKER, of Stanford, is visiting her school mate, Miss Annie Dishman.—Barbourville News.

MISS SALLIE MOORE and Rose Jameson, a pretty pair from Bourbon, are guests of Mrs. G. C. Givens.

The Advocate speaks in highly complimentary terms of a party given by Miss Jennie Walton at Danville.

Mrs. OKEAR, who was Miss Bettie Dennis, and her pretty little girl were here Saturday with Mrs. M. C. Thurman, of Danville.

Mrs. J. I. MCKINNEY, of Decatur, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Royston, of Gadsden, attended the funeral of Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

Mrs. DR. SIMP ELKIN (Nell Duncan) was much worse yesterday and Mrs. R. C. Warren was called at an early hour to her bedside at Lancaster.

Mrs. HELEN CAMPBELL, of Cynthiana, Ind., who has been visiting her son, Mr. John Hubble, for sometime, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

MR. JOHN GILL, Gadsden county's wealthiest citizen, was thought to be dying yesterday. He has been down some time with something like consumption.

MR. AND MRS. ALEX. WILSON, of Quincy, Fla., are visiting friends here, where Mrs. Wilson, then Miss Mattie Scarborough, spent some of the happiest days of her school life.

Mr. T. W. FLOYD and wife and Mrs. Martha Floyd, of Louisville, have taken rooms at Mrs. Kate Duddar's. Mr. Floyd, who is a commercial tourist, says Stanford is not only one of the best towns in the State, but the best place for a drummer to make headquarters.

Mrs. LARUE, Mrs. Geo. H. Brown, her son and Miss Jamie RaLue, of Louisville, were here Saturday and paid us a highly appreciated call. Mrs. Brown is one of the faculty of the Chenault University and is combining business with pleasure by writing up the blue-grass towns for the Courier-Journal.

The Chattanooga News has this notice of a former Stanford boy: "Robert C. Hicks, secretary of H. C. Eager, of the Alabama Great Southern freight depot, has received the appointment of contracting freight agent of the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus railroad for the Northwest. The paper also takes occasion to pay him a nice compliment."

CITY AND VICINITY.

PLEASE call and settle your accounts, as they have been due since July 1st. I need the mony. Kate Duddar.

THIEVES entered Mrs. Lewis Jones meat-house Saturday night and took therefrom 18 hams, 4 middlings and a number of shoulders.

LOTS.—Mrs. Catherine Bailey has for sale some lots in the Miller Extension House and lot now occupied by W. H. Miller; also No. 1 horse and buggy.

THERE are no new cases of sickness that we have heard of and those who are down are doing reasonably well, with the exception of Harry Geer, whose death is momentarily expected.

THE Q. & C. will give you another chance to visit Niagara August 1, when the round trip from Junction City will be about $10. The journey is via Detroit and through Canada and $1 more takes you to Toronto.

KILLED.—Thomas Fox, a tramp, was run over and killed Thursday night near Lebanon. He was stealing a ride on the break-beam of train No. 25, when he accidentally fell beneath the wheels and was mashed to death.

THERE is great demand for the male academy here. Three of our countrymen have made application for it and five from a distance want it, so it is hard to tell who will "teach the young idea how to shoot" at the school on the hill next session.

NEXT Tuesday's paper will tell the tale, which will be a glorious one for the democrats, if they do their duty, and we are confident they will. Don't be deceived by still hunts, prohibition balderdash nor what not, but go to the polls and vote for Warren and the other democratic nominees.

THE speaking at Milledgesville Saturday was another complete victory for Warren. The prohibitionists were gathered from all quarters, but democrats exceeded them two to one and gave Mr. Warren the reception his energy and ability deserves. Bro. Montgomery was completely rattled and his crowd retired very much in the same fix.

THE News says that while Humphrey Best was serving a term with his brother Will in jail at Lancaster for carrying concealed weapons, he was very insulting to Jailer Rothwell's wife and showed his vandalish nature by destroying the beds, ticks and other things in the jail that he could get his hands on. A warrant for malicious destruction of property was sworn out against him, but he waived examination and was held to the circuit court in a small bond. If the good people of Garrard do not suppress these fellows, they will yet do something that will cause them to regret that they did not.

IT is susceptible of proof that the prohibitionists are attempting to buy the votes of the ignorant negroes they would disfranchise. They offered a respectable colored man of the Turnersville precinct a sack of flour to vote for Montgomery and upon his positive refusal, they then said they would give him the door to vote for Ward, the attempted bribery having occurred when they thought he would accept the republican nomination.

This shows the true inwardness of the present and all other prohibition campaigns in this country. They are aimed directly at the democratic party, and its sole object is to break it up if possible. Yet there are men who have the inexpressible gall to say that they are as good democrats as any man even while supporting Montgomery. The republican party is as full of such democrats as hares is of violinists and they will join those musicians in their fiery quarters in the hot bye-and-bye if they keep on making such assertions. Dick Warren is the regular democratic nominee, he is a democrat himself from Awayback and all democrats wishing to be classed as such will vote for him.

INEXCUSABLE CARELESSNESS.—A few days ago while seeking shelter from a storm which came up while they were working for Mr. F. W. Simpson, Lige Maret and Burdett Blanks, a pair of Ethiopian bucks, became engaged in a game of craps. They finally fell out over 15 cents that Blanks claimed that Maret owed him and a difficulty ensued. Blanks then went home for his gun, as he called it, and returning fired five shots at Maret, one striking him in the side and coming out at the back without seriously injuring him. Maret then seized a pitchfork and his antagonist having exhausted his battery, charged upon him and would have sent him to kingdom come, had not bystanders disarmed him. Maret is the same negro who ran Perry Jones with a stick recently, while he was shooting at him with a pistol. Blanks was arrested and brought to town and awaiting an examination was lodged in jail. The trial was to have occurred Saturday, but Blanks had vanquished the ranch. The evening before young Walker took him out to milk and leaving him for a minute Blanks took to his heels and is still at large. People in the lower end of town saw him making Maud S. time through their back yards, but not knowing what was up made no attempt to stop him. It was a careless trick on the part of Sam Jones, at $150, begins and lasts till the close. The K. C. will run another excursion next Sunday, leaving Rowland at 5:30 A. M., returning to arrive at 8:30 P. M.

HON. R. C. WARREN will speak at Hustonville to-night, Tuesday, at 7 o'clock and invites Bro. Montgomery to a division of time.

CAPT. RICHARDS is all broke up over the runaway of his assistant. Miss Rose was the quickest, most correct and accommodating postmaster that ever handled the mail at this office and more of us will miss her besides her father.

AFTER reading Miss Bogle's card in a recent issue we do not believe there will be many men to vote against her and consequently we have considered her election a settled fact. She is a most deserving young lady and we shall be proud to see her fill out the term of her lamented father.

A WHEEL of Nunnelley's bus ran off while bringing the camp meeting goers home at 10:30 Sunday night, but fortunately no one was hurt. The women screamed and some of the men got rattled, but the horses stopped as still as grandfather's clock, else hades would have been to play.

WHILE the guests of the Myers House were at supper Sunday night a lamp fell from its socket and burst on the floor, setting fire to the oil contained in it. Considerable excitement was caused but the thoughtfulness of one of the waiters in smothering the blaze soon extinguished the fire and quietude again reigned.

JIM TALL, our fighting coon, is again in jail, this time for a fuss with Will Chesnut, another negro, who shot at him some four or five times, but unfortunately missed him. Tall averages a fight a week and it matters not who commences it, he is sure to land in jail. He proved himself to be in the right this time, however, and Chesnut was fined $5 while he goes free.

KU-KLUXING.—One day last week, a couple of brakemen, Wm. Chumley and J. W. Anderson, under the impression that G. V. Robinson was a spotter, gave him a good larruping at Rowland. He swore out a warrant charging them with confederating together for a criminal purpose and the papers were placed in Sheriff Newland's hands. Chumley had been discharged, as he thought, through Robinson's efforts, but Anderson was still braking on the local freight. To that train the officer went on its arrival Friday, but when the sheriff went into the caboose at one end Anderson made his exit by the other, and took out towards Rowland. J. N. Menefee was on the ground, however, and soon had his man in tow. He gave bail till yesterday, when he was held to circuit court in $50 bond.

THE tenth annual exhibition of the Kirksville Fair was not unlike its predecessors, but proved even more conclusively that it takes the cake for good stock, liberal premiums and genuine hospitality. It rained on Friday, the first day, and the crowd was rather small, but on Saturday the grounds were literally jammed and the association must have made a good per cent. on the money invested. Lincoln county was represented by a number of fine horses, which got their share of the "slick" ties, including Matt. Sandidge's string, which was particularly fortunate in that line. J. E. Farris' Gold King, a full brother to Silky King, took the $25 premium for 2-year-old stallions. The Fair hop Friday night was delightful in every particular and the gentlemen composing the club are to be congratulated on their success.

Chapter 19.

An act for taking the sense of the good people of this Commonwealth as to the necessity and expediency of calling a Convention to amend the Constitution, and to provide for ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State.

WHEREAS, Experience has pointed out the necessity of amending the Constitution, and the expediency of calling a Convention for that purpose; and whereas, the General Assembly of this State, by virtue of the provisions of an act approved January 15, 1888, having a title similar to this act, and pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution, submitted said question to the good people of this State at the general election of Representatives held therein on the first Monday in August, 1887; and whereas it appears from the returns of said election, now on file in the office of the Secretary of State, that at the said election a majority of all the citizens of this State entitled to vote for Representative, voted for calling said convention; and whereas, the Constitution provides that, at its next regular session succeeding such election, the General Assembly shall direct that a similar poll shall be opened, and returns made at the next general election held in said State for Representatives.

§ 1. That any officer required to do or to perform any of the acts or duties enjoined upon him by the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh sections of this act, shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars ($500), to be recovered by indictment of any grand jury in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and shall, upon conviction, be removed from office by the court in which said conviction is had.

§ 2. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to have this act advertised in one weekly newspaper having the largest circulation in each county of this Commonwealth, wherein there is such paper published, for two weeks, and two of the daily papers of the city of Louisville for ten days immediately preceding the election; and in every county said Secretary shall cause to be posted at the court-house door a copy of this act, printed in handbill form, for at least four consecutive weeks before such election.

§ 3. That it shall be the duty of the Public Printer to print ten thousand copies of this act upon a separate sheet of paper and deliver them to the Secretary of State, who shall forward the same to the county clerks of the various counties in this State, in such numbers as to provide at least two copies thereof for each voting precinct; said clerk shall deliver the same to the sheriffs or other officers acting in the place thereof; and it shall be the duty of such sheriff or other officer to post one copy of said act at each voting place, and another copy at some suitable public place in said precinct four weeks prior to the election. Any officer failing to discharge the duties prescribed in this section of this act shall be liable for each and every failure twenty dollars ($20) to be recovered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 20, 1888.

Kissed Another Man's Wife.

"You scoundrel!" yelled young Jacobi Green, At his good neighbor, Brown—

"You kissed my wife upon the street, I ought to knock you down!"

"That's where you're wrong," good Brown replied.

In accents mild and meek;

"I kissed her that I've not denied."

But kissed her on the cheek;

And I did it because she looked so handsome, the very picture of beauty and health. What is the secret of it?" Well," replied Green, "since you ask it I will tell you. She uses Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I accept your apology. Good night!" Favorite Prescription is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of giving satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it returned.

§ 5. That any sheriff or other returning officer failing to perform the duty imposed by first section of this act, shall be subject to a fine of six hundred dollars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and shall, upon conviction of such failure, be removed from office by the court in which such conviction is had.

§ 6. That for the purpose of ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State, in the year 1889, there shall be furnished, as heretofore provided to the sheriff and other officers of the election in August, 1889, a registration book, in which the officers of the election shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall be ex officio officers of registration; and shall have said registration book open for the recording of said names between the hours of 6 a. m. and 7 p. m., on the day of the August, 1889, election, at all the voting places in this Commonwealth. And it shall be the duty of all citizens of this Commonwealth who are entitled to vote for Representatives on the day of the next general election in August, 1889, to go before the sheriff and other returning officers of said election in the voting precinct in which they are severally entitled to vote, and cause themselves to be registered on the poll-book as qualified voters of this Commonwealth; and the names of any and all citizens living in the district known to said officers to be entitled to vote for Representative or made known to them by evidence on that day, shall be registered as not voting. And in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine no other officer shall be authorized to make any list or return of the qualified voters of this Commonwealth, nor shall any return thereof, except the registration books and certificates provided for by this act be made, and all laws requiring list or return of such qualified voters are hereby repealed, so far as the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine is embraced therein. The total number of voters so registered shall be the true number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a majority of all the citizens of this State entitled to vote for Representative, vote for calling a Convention for the
